C O L L E G E won the Wycombe Hospital Cup for the first time with a well-deserved 4—1 victory over Wycombe Wanderers in yesterday's final.

The Wanderers, driven to desperate defensive measures from the start by a faster, fitter, and younger side, were a goal down in the first three minutes.

The marksman was inside-left Brian Moore who pounced on an opening in a slow-covering Wycombe defence to slam the ball into the net.

Loughborough's second goal also came from Moore, who easily out-paced opposing defenders.

After five more minutes of pressure, centre forward Ken Bowron added a third goal.

Then, at last, the Wycombe attack penetrated the sturdy and strong-tackling Loughborough defence to score through a Mick Rockell header.

But a further demonstration of Loughborough's general superiority came immediately afterwards when right-winger Raybould netted goal No. 4.

In the second half Wycombe improved, but scoring chances that came their way were frittered because of poor shooting.

Outstanding for Wycombe were right-back Alistair Lewis and centre forward Mick Rockell, who both tried in vain to instil some sparkle into a poor side.
